MORNING GENERAL SESSION

2022 Jesse Jones Leadership Award Presentations

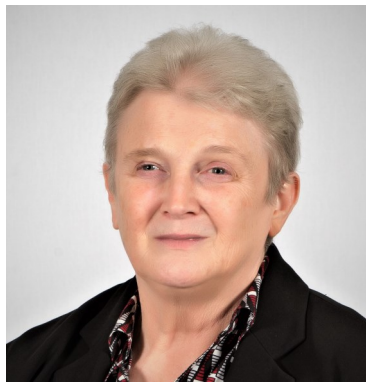

Each year, the North Texas Community College Consortium Board of Directors selects award winners based on contributions made to their college and/or the North Texas Community College Consortium in the following areas:

- Outstanding Leadership
- Dedicated Service
- Excellence in Communication, Cooperation, and Collaboration

2022 Jesse Jones Leadership Award

Presented by Dr. Rosalyn Walker, Tarrant County College

Dr. Janice Yoder Smith, Tarrant County College Northwest Campus

As an educator for thirty plus years, Dr. Janice Smith is the epitome of a leader. Dr. Smith has served the Fort Worth community since 1994 as a Biology Professor, Department Chair and Dean of Math & Science at Tarrant County College. As an administrator she has motivated, supported and coordinated campus and collegewide teams focused on student success. She has served as a judge with First LEGO League and Robotic competitions in the Metroplex, participating in SER Corporation Community STEM Day serving almost 2,000 middle/high school students, extensive work with American Association of Community Colleges (AACC) developing National Science Foundation mentoring programs and working with science faculty to host students participating in the Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation Research Academy. Dean Smith is also a contributing member of the Fort Worth Regional Science and Engineering Fair, helped Tarrant County College develop a Science Lab Continuity Plan, and participated in the STEM Virtual Conference during COVID. Beyond these accomplishments, Dr. Smith is also won the TCCD Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Teaching in 2005, successfully graduated in the 2012-2013 CLARA Cohort and serves on the CLARA Advisory Board. Dr. Smith believes the CLARA program was career and life changing for her.

2022 Jesse Jones Leadership Award

Presented by Dr. Christine Hubbard, North Texas Community College Consortium

Dr. Pam Boehm, Hill College

Dr. Pam Boehm has demonstrated outstanding leadership, dedicated service, and excellence in communication, cooperation, and collaboration through work at Hill College, her participation in and leadership of the North Texas Community College Consortium, and her advocacy for community colleges across Texas through TACC and THECB. In July 2014, Boehm was appointed as the 10th president of Hill College. From that time and until her retirement in May 2022, she focused efforts on initiatives designed to further ensure student success at Hill College, showcased the college as a unique and innovative institution of teaching and learning, and instituted the annual Instructional Innovation Conference in partnership with NTCCC. She has expanded dual credit programs with school districts in all campus locations, established university partnerships, partnered with local industries for technical training and certifications, and developed outreach programs and partnerships for Johnson and Hill County communities. Boehm served as Chair of the North Texas Community College Consortium Board of Directors and shaped the 2015-2020 and 2020-2025 strategic plans as well as updating NTCCC's charter and bylaws. She has been an active advocate for the Consortium and under her leadership brought two additional community college members into the organization. At the state level, Boehm has served on numerous boards and committees, most recently the Texas Higher Education Community & Technical College Leadership Council as well as the Legislative Committee and 60x30 Strategic Plan Committee of the Texas Association of Community Colleges.
